- On October 1, 2013 the Company announced that approximately 7,800 wet metric tonnes of copper concentrate had been shipped to international markets from the Company's bulk storage facility in Goodyear's Cove. This was the fourth shipment as part of the off-take agreement with Transamine Trading SA, bringing the total to approximately 26,000 wet metric tonnes since first production in late May 2012.

Located in north-central Newfoundland the previous operators had invested approximately $8 million into the property including 55,000 metres of diamond drilling, scoping level metallurgical test work, NI43-101 mineral resource estimates and a Preliminary Economic Assessment.

GEORGE OGILVIE, PRESIDENT AND CEO, RAMBLER METALS & MINING COMMENTED

"As we approach our first full year of commercial production at our Ming Copper-Gold Mine, we have realized a significant increase in revenues compared to the same period in 2012; as well as generating cash flow from operations and profitability. We are continuing to evaluate the various options we have before us to extend the project life including evaluating ways to upgrade the crushing and grinding circuit at our Nugget Pond Mill, by progressing with Krissy's Buckle property, Maritime Resources and the recently acquired 50 per cent interest at the Little Deer Project.

"Cash flow from operations will be used to pay down the Sprott facility by the end of March 2014. The Board remains optimistic and looks forward to being able to report a full year of commercial production and corporate development in 2014."
