

Silver Scott Mines, Inc. President Melvin Herdrick Announces His Retirement

06.12.2013 | Business Wire

Silver Scott Mines Inc. (PINK SHEETS: SILS) (the "Company") announced today that President/Director Melvin Herdrick has retired from the Company effective December 01, 2013. He will assist the Company with an orderly leadership transition over the next few months.

"I make this retirement decision with appreciation for all of the dedicated employees who have contributed to successfully starting the precious metal heap leach production at the Carmen Mine. I leave Silver Scott with the strong belief that the foundation I have set now positions the Company for a bright and successful future. It is time to focus on production optimization that will best benefit shareholders," stated Mr. Herdrick.

"Silver Scott Mines Inc. would like to take this opportunity to recognize the fine work done by Mr. Mel Herdrick in developing and starting up the Carmen Project. He is one of the finest geologists that I have had the pleasure of knowing and the Company owes him a real vote of gratitude. We would also like to thank Mel for agreeing to advise the new management and Board to assist in a smooth transition as we optimize production at Carmen," stated Mr. Roy Shipes, the newly elected non-executive Director and Chairman of the Board of the Company.
