VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwired - Mar 6, 2014) - Lara (TSX VENTURE:LRA) announces the expiration of the letter of intent dated November 29, 2013 whereby Lara and privately held Kiwanda Mines (NA) LLC agreed to sell to Nebo Capital Corp. (TSX VENTURE:NBO.P) their interests in certain coal properties and assets in Colombia, comprising:

1. A 19.91% equity interest in Carbhid SAS, a coal producer which holds an operating contract on the Escalones concession in the Boyaca district, where it is developing underground coal mining operations targeting thermal and metallurgical-grade coal;
2. The option to earn a 51% interest in all of Carbhid's interests in the Escalones Property, in return for investing $830,000 in exploration and development of the property by December 30, 2014;
3. The option to acquire a 75% interest in the Pelaya exploration prospect, in the Cesar district of northern Colombia for payments of US$ 3.8 million over five years and exploration work commitments; and Lara and Kiwanda may re-examine the proposed transaction with Nebo in the coming weeks, but in any case intend to continue to seek a transaction to advance and develop the Colombian interests.
