

Lydian International Limited: Announces Management Changes

12.11.2014 | Marketwired

TORONTO, Nov 12, 2014 - Lydian International Ltd. (TSX:LYD) ("Lydian" or "the Company") announced today that John Naisbitt has assumed the role of Project Execution Lead for the Amulsar Gold Project. Marc Leduc, Chief Operating Officer, will be providing transition support services until the end of 2014, at which time he will leave Lydian.

Mr. John A. Naisbitt has more than 35 years of increasingly responsible experience in project development, project capital management, engineering, construction, procurement and project management for various organizations and EPCM (Engineering, Procurement, and Construction Management) in the US, South America, Africa, Russia, Asia and Europe. Mr. Naisbitt has held various positions or worked as a consultant for such companies as AngloGold Ashanti, Lumina Copper, Gold Fields and other notable names in the mining industry.

Howard Stevenson, Lydian's President and CEO commented, "Marc's contributions during the past year were instrumental to Lydian's advances with Amulsar. His resignation comes following the culmination of successful efforts to relocate the heap leach facility, update the feasibility study, and support our permitting process. As we welcome John, I'd like to thank Marc for his dedication to Lydian's success and his willingness to ensure a smooth transition. We all wish Marc the very best in his next endeavor."
