

Toronto, ON / TheNewswire / September 21, 2015: Golden Hope Mines Ltd. ("Golden Hope" or the "Company") wishes to ensure that shareholders and investors have accurate and up to date information on the Uragold Bay Resources (TSX/V:UBR) ("Uragold") Option on the 90 hectare Bellechasse-Timmins gold deposit or "BT" claims, which represents a small portion of the total land position Golden Hope controls in the Beauce and Bellechasse regions of Quebec.

Under the Option Agreement, to obtain a 30% interest in BT, Uragold is required to obtain all required permits, approvals and documentation associated with going into production by October 9, 2015. Please refer to the Company's press releases dated September 4, 2015 and April 15, 2014.

Golden Hope has complied with its obligations in relation to the Option Agreement but Uragold's obligations remain incomplete. On October 10, 2015, if any of the required work by Uragold under the Option Agreement is incomplete, Golden Hope intends to send notice to Uragold that they are in breach of the terms of the Option Agreement, and that the Option will be terminated. Golden Hope will vigorously defend its right to effect such termination.
