TORONTO, ONTARIO--(Marketwired - May 17, 2016) - Lydian International Ltd. (TSX:LYD) ("Lydian" or "the Company") is pleased to announce it has disclosed an amended Environmental and Social Impact Assessment ("ESIA") for its 100% owned Amulsar Gold Project, located in Armenia. The amendments reflect project improvements realized from Lydian' successful 2015 value engineering program (see Lydian's news release, dated November 25, 2015). The ESIA is not required for permitting in Armenia but is a cornerstone for developing best international practices and adhering to the requirements of the EBRD and IFC.

An English version of the amended ESIA is available on Lydian's website at www.lydianinternational.co.uk. Armenian and English versions can be found on the website of the Company's Armenian subsidiary, Geoteam CJSC, at www.geoteam.am. Digital and hard copies are also available at the Amulsar Information Center located at the project site and in the Geoteam office in Yerevan. The amended ESIA replaces the previous ESIA for Amulsar that was first publically disclosed in May 2015. Geoteam will now commence a public consultation period and then disclose a final ESIA that incorporates input received.

Howard Stevenson, Lydian's President and CEO, commented, "the amendments incorporated in this version of the ESIA now align it with our project plan as outlined in our November 2015 technical report and with the recently approved Armenian EIA. The ESIA reflects our commitment to best international practices at all levels and clearly communicates our plans to incorporate these principles as we move forward with development and then operations at Amulsar."
