

TheNewswire / Marcy 25, 2016 - Doubleview Capital Corp. ("Doubleview") ([TSX-V: DBV], [OTC: DBLVF], [GER: 1D4]) is pleased to announce that it has been successful in its application obtaining an injunction order from the Supreme Court of British Columbia on May 24, 2016, preventing interference with drilling activity at Doubleview's gold-copper porphyry Hat Project, located in northwestern British Columbia (the "Order"). The Order restrains, Chad Norman Day, President of the Tahltan Central Government; Heather Hawkins, Vice President of the Tahltan Central Government; and certain other named First Nation Elders (collectively, the "Defendants"). In addition, the Order restrains any persons acting under the instruction of the Defendants or anyone with knowledge of the Order.

In the near future, Doubleview plans to carry out further drilling activities on its gold-copper porphyry Hat Project.

Since 2011, the Hat Project has been Doubleview's lead exploration project. Working with the cooperation of Tahltan Drilling Company and other members of Tahltan First Nation, Doubleview has conducted geophysical and geochemical surveys and preliminary archaeological evaluation and 8300 metres of diamond drilling in 25 drill holes. Doubleview's technical surveys and drilling in a small part of the Hat Project have discovered the Lisle Zone, an important gold-copper target that has not been delineated. Several "target" areas, including possible extensions of the Lisle Zone, remain to be investigated.
