

Surge Terminates its Option Agreement with LiCo Energy Metals to focus on its BC Poly Metallic Property at Caledonia

25.02.2020 | The Newswire

Vancouver, Feb. 25, 2020 - Surge Exploration Inc. ("the Company" or "Surge") (TSXV:SUR) (OTC:SURJF) (FRA:DJ5C) announces that it has signed a Property Agreement with LiCo Energy Metals Inc. ("LiCo"), hereby terminating early the Option Agreement with LiCo Energy Metals Inc. ("LiCo") originally announced on May 7, 2018. By doing so, LiCo will effectively retain 100% interest in the Glencore Bucke and Teledyne Claims, located near Cobalt, Ontario (the "Property") and in consideration for this early termination, LiCo proposes to pay 2,500,000 common shares to Surge.

The terms of the new Property Agreement are as follows:

Surge will voluntarily cancel the Option Agreement dated May 7, 2018 early, and as such LiCo will retain 100% interest in the Property.

Upon and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, LiCo agrees to the following:

1. 1. 1.
  - (a) issuing to Surge 2,500,000 fully paid and non-assessable common shares in the capital of LiCo Energy Metals Inc. at a deemed price of $0.09 per share, upon acceptance of the Agreement by the Exchange;
  2. (b) All shares issued to the Optionee are a subject to a four month and a day hold period under applicable Securities Laws; and
  3. (c) The Option Agreement is terminated upon Exchange acceptance to the Agreement.

The Agreement is subject to TSX Venture Exchange ("Exchange") approval.

Tim Fernback, President & CEO of Surge Exploration states "By terminating this option earlier than planned, Surge can continue to focus its efforts on both the Caledonia poly-metallic property in British Columbia and BC-based gold properties as stated in our recent shareholder updates and correspondence. The Company continues to focus our exploration efforts and resources on high value precious metal projects in British Columbia, and this is a further continuation of this process that began last year with the termination of various cobalt and lithium projects in South America. Management believes that this continued focus will be to the ultimate benefit of the shareholders."
