

Major Franklin Mining Inc. Shareholder Pens Account of Bolivia Visit

17.10.2022 | GlobeNewswire

Carson City, Oct. 17, 2022 - Now that machinery has begun arriving at the mine in Yuyo, operations for Franklin Mining (OTC Pink: FMNJ) inch ever closer to churning earth and extracting the gold within. With real production set to begin any day, a major shareholder paid a visit to the potential mining locations in both the Yuyo and San Ramon areas.

Eric Gemelli, a shareholder of Franklin Mining for more than five years, spent two weeks in Bolivia, meeting with personnel and touring the mines. Throughout his visit he met VP of Operations Fernando Freudenthal, geologist Dr. Michael Biste, as well as engineers, legal counsel, miners, and the head of the Cooperatives.

He independently verified contracts and procedural plans to ensure a smooth operation once ground has been broken. To read more about his experience, visit
