VANCOUVER, Aug. 1, 2023 - Reconnaissance Energy Africa Ltd. (the "Company" or "ReconAfrica") (TSXV: RECO) (OTC: RECAF) (Frankfurt: OXD) announces that, effective August 1, 2023, Brian Reinsborough will be appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and effective August 7, 2023, Adam Rubin will be appointed General Counsel of the Company.

Brian Reinsborough - President and Chief Executive Officer

Brian is a visionary executive with an outstanding track record and brings 35 years of successful oil and gas exploration and production experience including over 25 years in deepwater Gulf of Mexico. Having worked globally for Mobil Oil, Nexen Inc., and Pincus as an Executive-In-Residence and Venari Resources, Brian has discovered over 2 billion of barrels of oil equivalent in the course of his career in the deepwater Gulf of Mexico. During his career he has been involved with some of the largest discoveries in the history of the Gulf of Mexico including Appomattox, Anchor, and Shenandoah.

Brian has significant experience in attracting financing and talent for exploration-based businesses having raised over $1 billion of private equity financing in his previous company.

Brian completed the Program for Management Development from Harvard Business School, a Master of Arts in Geology from the University of Texas at Austin, and a Bachelor of Science in Geology from Mount Allison University, Canada. Brian was named the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year in Energy in the US in 2014 and currently serves on the Advisory Board of the University of Texas, Jackson School of Geosciences.

Adam Rubin - General Counsel

Adam brings over 25 years of legal, commercial, strategic and executive experience in the oil and gas industry. He has provided insight and advice to public CEOs, Board Chairs and executive management teams. He has significant experience negotiating successful complex, high-profile, multi-party corporate, financial and international transactions.

Adam has represented both public and private companies in a broad range of capacities, including formation, venture capital financings, initial public offerings, corporate contests, international transactions, and Canadian and U.S. reporting requirements.

He began his career at a national Canadian law firm and has been Assistant General Counsel at Nexen Inc., and General Counsel at Venari Resources as well as a Blackstone portfolio company. Adam earned his undergraduate degree in economics from the University of Ottawa, his MBA in finance from the University of Ottawa and his JD from the University of Calgary. He completed the Executive Leadership Development Program at Harvard Business School and is a member of the Law Society of Alberta.

Craig Steinke, Executive Chairman stated "Brian is an exceptional explorationist and energy executive. He has an outstanding track record in successfully exploring and commercializing large scale oil and natural gas opportunities for growing companies. As Chief Executive Officer, Brian will immediately take the leading role in directing the Company's future strategic course. He will oversee the integration of a considerable amount of subsurface data the Company has recently acquired in order to execute a carefully designed, efficient, multi-well drilling program to be scheduled in the coming months. Brian's global experience in exploration execution, track record and reputation in the energy sector will provide the right expertise as ReconAfrica enters on the next phase of growth and sustainability while assisting Namibia in achieving its critical goal of energy independence."

"We would like to thank Scot Evans for his contribution as Chief Executive Officer and leadership during the formative years of ReconAfrica and wish him continued success on his retirement," said Craig Steinke.

Scot Evans stated, "My time working with the governments of Namibia and Botswana has been very rewarding, and I'd like to thank ReconAfrica for the opportunity to work with them."

thank the people of these two great countries for their consistent welcoming and positive spirit. I would also like to wish the team at ReconAfrica continued success as I believe firmly in the hydrocarbon potential of the Kavango basin."
