

Panther Minerals Appoints Jeffrey Kupfer As Strategic Advisor

03.09.2024 | CNW

VANCOUVER, Sept. 3, 2024 - Panther Minerals Inc. ("Panther Minerals" or the "Company") (CSE: PURR) (OTC: GLIOF) (FWB: 2BC) is pleased to announce that it has added Mr. Jeffrey Kupfer as a strategic advisor to the Company. Mr. Kupfer will bring his expertise and knowledge of the energy sector in the United States to aid in providing guidance and insight into advancing opportunities for Panther Minerals.

Jeffrey Kupfer is a principal at DAA consulting, the president of the nonprofit organization ConservAmerica, and an adjunct professor of policy and management at Carnegie Mellon University's Heinz College. Mr. Kupfer previously served in several senior U.S. government roles during the George W. Bush administration. He was chief of staff and then acting deputy secretary and chief operating officer at the U.S. Energy Department. He also worked in the White House as a special assistant to the president for economic policy and in the U.S. Treasury Department as the deputy chief of staff.

In the private sector, Mr. Kupfer was a senior advisor for policy and government affairs at Chevron and a senior executive at Atlas Energy.

Mr. Kupfer holds degrees from Yale University and Harvard Law School.

"We are excited to have Jeff join Panther as a strategic advisor, bringing a vast understanding of the energy landscape in the United States, and extensive knowledge and networks to help advance our objectives moving forward," stated Rob Birmingham, Chief Executive Officer of Panther Minerals. "As a US focused uranium company, adding Jeff's experience to the team will benefit the Company significantly as we strive to continue corporate objectives, including progress on our Boulder Creek and Huber Heights projects."

Stock Option and RSU Grant

In conjunction with the new appointment, along with the appointments of Mr. Jeffrey Kupfer, the Company has granted a total of 125,000 incentive stock options at a price of $0.20, and 75,000 RSU's. The Company's Stock Option Plan governs the incentive options, as well as the terms and conditions of their exercise, and the Company's RSU Plan governs the RSU's (and terms and conditions of their exercise), all in accordance with policies of the Canadian Securities Exchange.

Forward-Looking Statements

This news release contains "forward-looking information" within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation. Often, but not always, forward-looking information and information can be identified by the use of words such as "plans", "expects" or "does not expect", "is expected", "estimates", "intends", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", or "believes", or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", "might" or "will" be taken, occur or be achieved. Actual future results may differ materially. In particular, this news release contains forward-looking information relating to the Company and the Property. The forward-looking information reflects management's current expectations based on information currently available and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that may cause outcomes to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking information. Such risk factors may include, among others, but are not limited to: general economic conditions in Canada and globally; industry conditions, including governmental regulation and environmental regulation; the availability of capital on acceptable terms; the need to obtain required approvals from regulatory authorities; stock market volatility; competition for, among other things, skilled personnel and supplies; incorrect assessments of the value of acquisitions; geological, technical, processing and transportation problems; changes in tax laws and incentive programs; failure to realize the anticipated benefits of acquisitions and dispositions; and the other factors. Although the Company believes that the assumptions and factors used in preparing the forward-looking information are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on such information and no assurance can be given that such events will occur in the disclosed time frames or at all. Factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from current expectations include: (i) adverse market conditions; and (ii) other factors beyond the control of the Company. New risk factors emerge from time to time, and it is impossible for the Company's management to predict all risk factors, nor can the Company assess the impact of all factors on Company's business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ from those contained in any forward-looking information. The forward-looking information included in this news release are made as of the date of this news release and the Company expressly disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking information whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable law. Additional information identifying risks and uncertainties that could affect financial results is contained in the Company's filings with Canadian securities regulators, which are available on the Company's profile at www.sedarplus.ca.
