- The Company recorded $1.6 million of net other operating income during the third quarter 2024 which was related primarily to the sale of Silex Argentina and Minera Labri. In the third quarter 2023, the Company recorded $0.1 million of net other operating income.

- Net gain was $0.2 million or $0.01 per share in the third quarter 2024, compared to a net loss of $3.2 million or $0.38 per share in the third quarter 2023.

Cash Inflows and Expenditures

Cash expenditures during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 totaled $10.1 million and included:

- $5.9 million from the net loss on discontinued operations and assets held for sale, which includes $4.6 million of net operating costs, $0.9 million of severance payments made to employees in Mexico who were terminated during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, and $0.4 million in care and maintenance costs at the El Quevar project net of zero reimbursements from Barrick;
- $3.0 million in general and administrative expenses; and
- $1.2 million in exploration expenditures.

The above expenditures were partially offset by cash inflows of $8.1 million from the following:

  - $2.5 million of proceeds from the sale of the Velardeña and Chicago mines, sulfide plant, mine equipment and mine concessions
  - $1.0 million of proceeds from the sale of Velardeña Plant 2 and water wells
  - $1.0 million of proceeds from the first two payments on the sale of Silex Argentina
- $2.6 million from the collection of value added tax ("VAT") receivables from the Mexican Government;
- $0.4 million of proceeds received from the sale of Minera Labri; and
- $0.6 million of other working capital changes.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company does not currently have sufficient resources to meet its expected cash needs during the twelve months ending September 30, 2025. At September 30, 2024, the Company had current assets of approximately $2.5 million, including cash and cash equivalents of approximately $1.8 million. On the same date, it had accounts payable and other current liabilities of approximately $4.5 million, which includes $1.0 million in deferred revenue for the sale of the Velardeña oxide plant and water wells. As previously disclosed, the Company ceased mining at the Velardeña mines in Mexico in the first quarter 2024, and subsequently sold the mines and certain related assets. As of November 15, 2024, the Company is still owed $1.7 million, plus VAT, of the purchase price for the remaining Velardeña assets. The Company's only near-term opportunity to generate cash flow to meet its expected cash requirements is from the sale of assets, equity or other external financing. With the receipt of the proceeds from the sale of Silex Argentina, and the cash payments received to date for the Yoquivo Transaction, as of November 15, 2024 the Company has cash and cash equivalents of approximately $3.6 million and accounts payable of approximately $1.2 million. In the absence of additional cash inflows, the Company anticipates that its cash resources will be exhausted in the second quarter of 2025.

Golden Minerals will need to secure additional sources of capital. In order to satisfy the Company's projected general, administrative, exploration and other expenses through September 30, 2025, it will need approximately $1.5 to $3.5 million in capital inflows. These capital inflows may take the form of asset sales, equity or other external financing activities, collection of the outstanding amount due on the Velardeña sale, or from other sources.

The Company is taking actions to address its liquidity and financial stability concerns. As a part of these efforts, the Company is pursuing various objectives, including the receipt of the unpaid proceeds from the Velardeña sale, completion of the sale of the Yoquivo gold-silver project, or obtaining equity or other external financing. The Company also continues to evaluate other strategic transactions. The proceeds from these transactions would be directed toward addressing the Company's ongoing operating expenses and satisfying its liabilities, while seeking to maximize any remaining value for its shareholders. If the Company is unable to obtain additional resources, it may be forced to cease operations and liquidate.

As previously disclosed, the Company has received notices from the NYSE American LLC (the "NYSE American") that it is not compliant with the NYSE American listing standards. The Company has until December 6, 2024 (the "Compliance Deadline") in order to regain compliance. The Company is continuing its efforts to regain compliance; however, if the Company is unable to regain compliance by the deadline, the Company expects the NYSE American to initiate delisting proceedings.
