

Inventus Announces Conditional Acceptance of Early Warrant Exercise Incentive Program

25.04.2025 | GlobeNewswire

TORONTO, April 25, 2025 - Inventus Mining Corp. (TSXV: IVS) ("Inventus" or the "Company") is pleased to announce it has received conditional acceptance from the TSX Venture Exchange (the "TSXV") to commence an early warrant exercise incentive program (the "Program") intended to encourage the early exercise of up to 15,000,000 outstanding common share purchase warrants (the "Eligible Warrants") originally issued in connection with the Company's private placement financing that closed on November 6th, 2024, as previously announced by the Company in a news release dated April 17th, 2025.

The Company has received approval from the TSXV for an amendment to the terms of the Eligible Warrants to enable holders thereof who elect to exercise their Eligible Warrants, at the price of $0.09 on or prior to 5:00 PM Eastern Time on May 16th, 2025, to receive:

- the common shares in the capital of the Company to which they are otherwise entitled under the terms of the Eligible Warrants; and
- one additional common share purchase warrant of the Company (each, an "Incentive Warrant") entitling the holder to acquire an additional common share of the Company (each, an "Incentive Warrant Share") at a price of $0.12 per Incentive Warrant Share until 5:00 PM Eastern Time on November 6th, 2026.

Please refer to the Company's news release dated April 17th, 2025 for additional details of the Program.

Incentive Warrant Summary

Each Incentive Warrant will be exercisable at $0.12 until 5:00 PM Eastern Time on November 6th, 2026. The expiry date of the Incentive Warrants may be accelerated by Inventus if the closing price of the common shares of the Company on the TSXV is greater than or equal to $0.15 over a consecutive 20-day period. If this occurs, the Company may accelerate the expiry date of the Incentive Warrants by issuing a press release announcing the reduced Incentive Warrant term whereupon the Incentive Warrants will expire on the 10th trading day after the date of such press release.

The Incentive Warrants, and any Incentive Warrant Shares issued upon the exercise thereof, will be subject to a four-month hold period from the date of issuance in accordance with Canadian securities laws.

Potential Proceeds and Issuances

If all Eligible Warrants are exercised during the Early Exercise Period, the Company expects to:

- raise gross proceeds of up to $1,350,000
- issue up to 15,000,000 Common Shares, and
- issue up to 15,000,000 Incentive Warrants.

Participation Process

Details will be provided directly to each Eligible Warrant holder.

Forward-Looking Statements

This News Release includes certain "forward-looking statements" which are not comprised of historical facts. Forward-looking statements include estimates and statements that describe the Company's future plans, objectives or goals, including words to the effect that the Company or management expects a stated condition or result to occur. Forward-looking statements may be identified by such terms as "believes", "anticipates", "expects", "estimates", "may", "could", "would", "if", "yet", "potential", "undetermined", "objective", or "plan". Since forward-looking statements are based on assumptions and address future events and conditions, by their very nature they involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Although these statements are based on information currently available to the Company, the Company provides no assurance that actual results will meet management's expectations. Risks, uncertainties and other factors involved with forward-looking information could cause actual events, results, performance, prospects and opportunities to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking information. Forward-looking information in this news release includes, but is not limited to, the Company's objectives, goals or future plans, statements, exploration results, potential mineralization, the estimation of mineral resources, exploration and mine development plans, timing of the commencement of operations and estimates of market conditions. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from such forward-looking information include, but are not limited to the failure to identify mineral resources, failure to convert estimated mineral resources to reserves, the inability to complete a feasibility study which recommends a production decision, the preliminary nature of metallurgical test results, delays in obtaining or failures to obtain required governmental, environmental or other project approvals, political risks, inability to fulfill the duty to accommodate First Nations and other indigenous peoples, uncertainties relating to the availability and costs of financing needed in the future, changes in equity markets, inflation, changes in exchange rates, fluctuations in commodity prices, delays in the development of projects, capital and operating costs varying significantly from estimates and the other risks involved in the mineral exploration and development industry, and those risks set out in the Company's public documents filed on SEDAR+. Although the Company believes that the assumptions and factors used in preparing the forward-looking information in this news release are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on such information, which only applies as of the date of this news release, and no assurance can be given that such events will occur in the disclosed time frames or at all. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, other than as required by law.
